Student Engagement at CIM

Canterbury Institute of Management (CIM) encourages the involvement of students in its decision-making and strategic planning on student-related matters, through student representation on committees and advisory groups. Canterbury Institute of Management Student Association (CIMSAs) is the official student representative body that supports student advocacy and sovereignty.

CIMSA – Voice of Students...

At CIMSA, we recognise that personal wellbeing is important for students to progress academically with a positive approach to their education and campus experience. We are committed to ensuring that all students are supported to have a positive student experience whilst studying at CIM. It is our aim to bring all students closer together and offers a supporting network for them. If students are feeling that they need support at any time, or if a personal problem arises that affects their studies at CIM, CIMSA could arranged to offer individualised advice. CIM Office Bearers represent CIM's student body of diverse range of cultures and ages.

Get heard!

CIMSA's role is vital because it ensures the line of communication between CIM governing bodies and its student body. CIMSA Office Bearers ensure that student views are considered when decisions are made about academic matters and other key areas of the student experience at CIM. This process gives CIM students the forum to voice their views and gives CIM governing bodies valuable feedback from the people who matter the most – our students.

CIM is continually striving to improve the experience of its students. CIMSA Office Bearers will be at the forefront of communicating the opinions of the student body.

Rajat Singh

Hello, my name is Rajat Singh. I am currently studying Bachelor of Business - Information Systems at CIM.

I am the 2020 President of CIM Student Association (CIMSA). I am enjoying my studies at CIM and would encourage all students to make use of the services and resources of CIM to enhance their learning experience.

Due to COVID-19 pandemic, students may be facing some challenges on online learning because international students are used to of mainly face to face communication and learning. I encourage all students to seek help of CIM Student Support and Academic staff if they are facing any challenges in their learning.

I am passionate about developing communication and leadership skills for all students. I will use my best efforts to reduce communication distance between CIM academic staff and students and, among students. As President of CIMSA, I aim to bring forward the concerns of other students in front of CIM management.

Furthermore, I know most of us are international students. I respect the diversity of student groups at CIM. We should all enjoy our time in beautiful Australia and learn to achieve our individual goals. I am aware of the challenges that we all face in Australia and the I will make sure that we help each other here not in study only also to become a better person in life to make this world a better place to live.

Garima Giri

I am Graima Giri. I am completing my Bachelor of Business – Accounting at CIM.

I am from Kathmandu, Nepal – the country I love the most for its beautiful climate and mountains. My family is in Nepal where family values and education are the two most important things parents pass on to their children. It was always my family's and my desire for me to complete my higher education in Australia.

I arrived in Australia with great ambitions. I believe my education will help me achieve my ambitions.

At CIM, I am the Vice President of Student Association. I joined CIMSA to learn and contribute in the betterment of students. I believe it is vital to empower the student body and to have a voice to represent all students. As the Vice President of CIMSA in 2020, I believe in unity to accomplish our objectives in this institution. I try to promote the sense of community and togetherness to face the challenges in front of us. As a student at CIM, my goal is to make all new and current students feel welcomed as well as enjoy their time in this institution, like I have.

I encourage my fellow students to take part in CIMSA activities.

Raunak Sainju

I am Raunak Sainju. I was born and brought up in Kathmandu, Nepal. I used to live in a joint family of about 14 members in Nepal. My parents own a travel agency in Nepal. My father is a keen sports fan and is an office bearer of local Volleyball Association. He indulges himself in community work for the betterment of the society and country. You might know that Volleyball is now the national sport of Nepal.

I have an older brother who is currently undertaking his postgraduate studies and PhD in nuclear energy at the University of Connecticut in the United States.

I love driving and motorcycle riding. Motor sport is my passion. My keen interest in automobiles has been from a very young age. I want to do something significant in that area.

I completed my early schooling from St Xavier's School. Then went for my higher secondary schooling in Ace Higher Secondary School. I came to Australia in 2018 for my higher education. Currently, I am studying Bachelor of Business - In Information System at Canterbury Institute of Management (CIM). I extremely satisfied with my study at CIM. The staff at CIM are passionate about students' care and academic success.
