Dr. Helen Haslem
Program Director - Management

B Comm / LLB (Hons) (ANU), M Prof Ethics (UNSW), Grad Dip (Legal Practice) (ANU), Grad Cert Higher Education (ACU), Phd

Helen is an experienced lawyer and academic who holds undergraduate degrees in Commerce and Law, and a Master's qualification in Professional Ethics. Helen has over a decade of legal experience prosecuting and defending a broad range of civil and criminal claims, from defamation to tax fraud. Helen is also an experienced academic and a dedicated teacher. She has recently completed her Graduate Certificate in Higher Education. In addition, Helen has a PhD from Monash University.

Alexander Menge
Program Director - Hospitality Management
MIHHM (WSU), Cert IV Commercial Cookery (RPC), FILT (MU)

Alex is an experienced and passionate hospitality professional who holds a Master's degree of International Hospitality & Hotel Management from Western Sydney University. He has over 30 years industry and teaching experience in the field of hospitality. Over the last 7 years, Alex has enhanced his academic experience in the role of Program Manager - Hospitality Management Undergraduate at the International College of Management Sydney (ICMS).
In 2015 Alex was awarded the Most outstanding graduating student in the Master of International Hospitality & Hotel Management at Western Sydney University. During his 18-year career at ICMS, Alex received several awards for his Excellence in Teaching. He has also been a professional member of The Council for Tourism and Hospitality Education (CAUTHE) and Meetings and Events Australia (MEA).

As Program Director - Hospitality Management at CIM, Alex has the responsibility of leading academic operations of Bachelor of Business – Hospitality Management major.

Dr. Indra Seher
Program Director - Information Systems

Dr. Seher has a PhD from Western Sydney University in Computing and Information Technology. Her professional career spans over two decades. She has worked in the IT industry and as an academic with extensive experience in teaching, designing, and coordinating tertiary level courses in Information Systems. She is an active researcher in the areas including Artificial Intelligence, Software Engineering, and Natural Language Processing.

Dr Seher worked as a Project Manager at the Western Sydney University and also extends her work as a Reviewer/ Programme committee member/Technical committee member for several international conferences. She was a reviewer/editor for textbooks as well. Dr Seher was a course advisor for postgraduate and undergraduate students and also represented various University-level committees. Dr Seher currently serves on the Course Industry and Advisory Committee of Southern Academy of Higher Education. She is currently supervising researches of postgraduate students as well.

Dr Seher will to continue to work as an academic with teaching and research that allows her to develop her research career by exploring her potential in the field of Computing and IT through professional work, dedication and innovative and challenging frame of mind.

Dr. Pranil Prasad
Program Director - Accounting

Pranil is the Program Director of Accounting and an active lecturer and researcher, having taught and researched in accounting and auditing for over 15 years. Pranil has previously taught at highly reputable higher education institutions in Australia, and Fiji. He has written and presented numerous short courses on International Financial Reporting Standards.

Pranil has received numerous grants to support his research. He has published his research in peer-reviewed academic journals and industry publications in accounting and auditing.

Pranil is an affiliate member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and a Chartered Accountant. He is also a member of various academic institutions, such as, the Accounting and Finance Association of Australia and New Zealand and the European Accounting Association.

Pranil has previously represented his Faculty and School in various University-level committees and has also been a course advisor for undergraduate students. Pranil currently serves on the Course Industry and Advisory Committee of Southern Academy of Higher Education.